

DUMB MISTAKES

Session

Six

“Mistaking Control For Ownership”

And how to avoid them!

Introduction

“Promise her anything, but give her Arpege.” Though that line sells perfume, the principle advanced in its subtle message is a fairly typical approach to life for many. Say what you must in the heat of the moment, and then deliver whatever you wish later on. That may fly in human relationships, but it’s mega-dangerous when you are dealing with God. It could be a colossal blunder to assume that God isn’t aware of your true commitment to Him!

Background
