Twelve Sessions in the Gospel of John

Session Seven: A Miracle to Die For 5-15-03

What would you have to do to warrant the death penalty? In our sterilized society, the most heinous crime still results in pleas for leniency and mercy. Only the most brazen would ever be marked for capital punishment. It's hard to find the error worthy of death.

In the society of Israel, circa 30 A.D., the discussion went another direction altogether. For the people with the power to condemn the guilty, the crime worthy of death was really remarkable. In fact, the straw that broke that camel's back is the centerpiece of John's eleventh chapter. The raising of Lazarus from death was the final nail in Jesus' coffin: it will set in motion his arrest, trials and crucifixion. It was, literally, a miracle to die for.

As we see the event unfold, don't miss the message that stands out from the circumstances. The benefits of the miracle were short-lived, but the benefits of the message can still change your life today!
