Fresh Perspectives on Financial Prosperity

Reflections From the Top

Session Five - 5/31/07

Solomon was loaded, no doubt about it. In fact, he had so much that people everywhere were talking about his incredible wealth. It showed; he wasn't careful about hiding it from anyone.

When Solomon took over as king, God gave him the opportunity to ask for anything he wanted as a coronation gift. He showed uncanny insight when he requested the gift of wisdom from God. God was so impressed that, in addition to the discernment and judgment that He gave, He also promised riches and honor that would make Solomon "numero uno" among kings.

Listen, if you want to know about assets, if you are wondering if getting the goods will make you happy, here's the guy to ask. He isn't theoretical; he had it all. His advice is coming straight from the top of the heap.

FINANCIAL PROSPERITY:
Having enough money to support the lifestyle you choose to maintain, with enough left over to invest for lifetime financial security.

■ Fresh Perspectives on Financial Prosperity

1. How do you achieve financial prosperity?
   Ecclesiastes 5:10-12

2. How do you protect financial prosperity?
   Ecclesiastes 5:13-17

3. How do you enjoy financial prosperity?
   Ecclesiastes 6:1-2

The Answer: Peace, Not Prosperity!

Ecclesiastes 5:18-20

- You don't achieve it, you receive it!
- You don't protect it, you accept it!
- You don't enjoy the proceeds, you enjoy the process!

The Result:

Rather than regretting the past or fearing the future, you'll maximize the present..."occupied with a glad heart."
