

Session #5 – 12/1/05

▶ INTRODUCTION ◀

Can you be a Christian and benefit from the “Laws of Supply and Demand?” Some see any profits earned during challenging dips in an economic cycle as “blood-money” taken from people in trouble. Is it ever right to make money at other peoples’ expense?

Providing that valid faith defies hasty generalizations, God has recorded the exploits of a man whose management style anticipated economic decline and benefited from it. This is more they didn’t teach you at Harvard Business School from the life of Joseph: God’s man and Pharaoh’s Prime Minister!
